

The School of the Humanities, Växjö University
proudly presents:

The Legacy of the 1960s

American History and Culture in the Aftermath of Protests and Polarization of the 1960s

Växjö University, April 18th 2001
Homerus Room (P-building), Universitetsplatsen 7

13.00 Introduction by Gunlög Fur

Professor David Goldfield (University of North Carolina, Charlotte, Fulbright Professor at Uppsala University): How the Civil Rights Movement Defined and Defied the 1960s

13.30 Professor Jon Hunner (New Mexico State University and Fulbright at Växjö University): Beyond Sex, Drugs, and Rock 'n' Roll: The Counter Culture's Impact on America

14.10 Dag Blanck (Swenson Center, Illinois and Uppsala University): Affirmative Action: A Continuing Legacy from the 1960s

14.35 Associate Professor Gunlög Fur (Växjö University): "Native Americans: from compensation to casinos."

Coffee!

15.30 Where did all the flowers go? A Discussion on the 1960s, moderated by Lisbeth Saab and Brenne Bachmann (both of Växjö University)

17.00→ Reception: A snack and a drink (and maybe some Rock 'n' Roll)

There will probably be no time for questions after each lecture, so please save and remember all your questions and comments for the discussion!

For further information, please contact
Gunlog.Fur@hum.vxu.se (History, School Of the Humanities)

School of the Humanities